EDITORIAL

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

WEDNESDAY, : : : : : : : : : : JULY 17, 1867

THERE is a fixed, unalterable determination on the part of the Conservatives throughout the entire State of Tennessee, to refuse employment to every negro who arrays himself against his employer. Duty and self respect demands such a course. Over twelve months ago we urged such a policy, and we are rejoiced to see the Conservative party everywhere adopting it. Hon. EMERSON ETHERIDGE, our glorious standard bearer, makes the issue broad and distinct—as distinct as the negro can possibly desire. In his speech at Humboldt he said, "Forbid all intercourse between Conservative families and those of Radicals or Unionists. He warned them against even permitting the children to play together, and enforcing universal proscription of loyalists as a solemn duty on the part of rebels; declared that if he were so unfortunate as to have a Radical son-in-law, the only tribute he would pay to his memory when dead, would be to pour upon his grave, as an indignant libation, a quantity of bad whisky." If Conservatives are "rebels" "traitors" and unworthy of exercising rights guaranteed to the negro, of course they are not fit to purchase goods or to associate with Radicals. The Nashville Gazette, one of the soundest and ablest papers in the State, also gives utterance to the same noble sentiments in the following language: "Let us determine fully and unequivocally, come weal or woe, that we will not buy a cent's worth of goods from a Radical merchant, have our boots manufactured by a Radical shoemaker, employ a Radical mechanic, ride in a Radical colored hack, shave in a Radical barber shop, send our children to a Radical teacher, attend a Radical church, employ a Radical servant, or in fact, have anything whatever to do or to say to any one who is Radical, or who refuses us equal rights with himself in the State or general Government. The money in this country is in the hands of Conservative men, and by all means let them keep it among themselves; and if there is one among us who is so cowardly and so void of manhood as to be unwilling to enter into the determination, let the balance of us look down upon him as too mean and too contemptible for our association, and class him also with the vilest and most degraded and infamous associations on earth—the Radicals." The Lebanon Herald echoes back the same firm determination: "There is left, in our opinion, but one course for our people to pursue—discharge every negro hand on your farm who has voted the Radical ticket, and fill his place with a white man; withdraw your patronage from every man, woman or child, black or white, who avows himself a Radical. If this is done, we will at once see the effect of this good work. We speak with no uncertain voice. The time for action has arrived, and it remains for our people to say whether they will remain the slaves of the party now in power, or will come out boldly in defense of their freedom." These views, so generally entertained by the Conservative party, have caused a preconcerted howl among the Radicals. If the negro turns his back upon his old master, protector and best friend, he must look to those for whom he votes and with whom he sympathizes for aid and support. The Conservatives have no unkindness toward the negro. They recognize them as equals before the law and at the ballot box; but if the negro refuses white men the same rights he enjoys, an antagonism will thus be engendered that will result in untold misery to both races. It is natural for men to hire friends instead of enemies, and the negro cannot expect to meet in Loyal Leagues and concoct schemes for the disfranchisement and degradation of the white man, and afterward receive employment from those whom he drives from the ballot box. We admit the negro has the right to vote for whom he pleases, but at the same time the Conservatives have the right to employ whom they please; and they intend to exercise this right by employing their friends instead of their enemies. If the negro is determined to array himself against the white man, much as such a contest is to be deplored, the issue will be boldly met. On the day of the election if the negro marches up to the polls, and defiantly, and with taunting insolence, says to nine-tenths of the white voters of Memphis: "You are disfranchised; you are 'traitors;' you are 'rebels;' we deny you the right to vote; get out of our way while we cast our suffrages for your enemies—for the Radicals—who intend to keep the badge of disgrace upon you." The next morning the negro wants money to buy marketing for his wife and children. The Conservative simply replies—"Yesterday you drove me from the ballot box—you denied me equal rights, and supported men who ostracise and proscribe me—look to these for employment." If the negro hurls himself against the people of Tennessee, such will be the unavoidable issue. It is absurd to suppose that the Conservatives are such contemptible sneaks—so wanting in pride and manliness as to feed the hand that smites them—as to take into their households anybody, either white or black, who proposes to degrade them and their children. The destiny of the Southern man and the negro ought to be the same. It will be the same if the negro will extend to the white man the rights he possesses himself.

THE mad-dog Congress is in full blast, and by the time dog days commence each member will be foaming and frothing at the mouth with the hydrophobia. Under the Military reconstruction bill a kind of straw king has been appointed, who can, in his realm, suppress newspapers, abridge free speech, silence lecturers, remove Governors of States, depose Mayors of cities, Boards of Commissioners, exclude white aldermen and appoint negroes in their places, take possession of banks, enact stay laws, prevent the sale and distillation of liquors, repudiate city debts, spend five hundred thousand dollars for registering votes and ask for a half million more, abolish local taxes, settle the rate of wages and the price of commodities, disobey the President and insult a member of his Cabinet—we say the commanding officer can do—has done—all these things; yet an extra session of Congress has been called to give more power to these despots who have usurped the rights of the people. And the crazed fools have gone to work in good earnest to see if they can't enlarge the power of their tools. Acts amendatory and explanatory have been introduced and passed, all intended to degrade, humiliate, grind and oppress a defenceless and unresisting people. Why mince words about the matter? Why enact laws full of circumlocution when the object is simply intended to give the commanders of districts the right to do as they please? But as the taste of blood only makes the wolf more ravenous, so has the taste of tyranny made the despots more cruel. Having placed their heel upon the neck of the Southern States, they are now hunting for new victims. Mr. KELLY's resolution, inquiring whether Maryland and Delaware have now State governments of a Republican form, has passed the dog-day Congress by a large majority! At the last election Connecticut voted the Conservative ticket, and when Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware shall have been stripped of their rights as free and sovereign States and placed under the power of Radicalism, then will Mr. KELLY, or some other contemptible poacher upon the rights of the people, introduce resolutions of inquiry as to whether Connecticut has a Republican form of Government. Where is all this thing to end? Verily revolutions never go backward. The maddened, infatuated revolutionists of France recognized no law save their own despotic will, and the Radicals override and spit upon law, constitution, everything that interferes with their lust for power. And all this sin, wickedness, crime, madness and deviltry is committed in the name of Liberty! Freedom! Union! Crime is awful in its own image, but when clothed in the garments of an assumed virtue it has a superhuman horror. Crime without the disguise of hypocrisy is human, but crime perpetrated in the name of virtue is fiendish. What can the people of the South gain by affiliating with a party so cruel, vindictive and proscriptive? There can be no peace so long as this party remains in power. Enmity and hate are the fruits of its policy. Peace and quiet cannot be secured by yielding to its aggressive demands. Nothing will satisfy its voracious appetite. It cannot exist without strife and discord. And the people of ten Southern States are asked to stultify themselves in order that a few bad men may procure seats in a very bad Congress! Our people are in chains and fetters, but meekness, silence, moderation, and spaniel-like toadyism will not stay the hand of oppression or strike the shackles from their ankles. Since self abasement will give us neither repose nor our Constitutional rights, we say stand firm, resolute, poised upon the solid and immovable pedestal of principles. There is no dishonor in submitting with dignity to a fate we cannot avert; but there is shame and disgrace in voluntarily prostrating ourselves at the feet of men too cowardly to be magnanimous—too tyrannical to feel a single throb of mercy or sympathy for a brave but unfortunate foe.

THERE will be a grand barbecue at Somerville, on the 27th instant, and preparations are being made to entertain an immense concourse of both white and colored, who are expected to be present on the occasion. That gallant officer and gifted orator, General FRANK P. BLAIR, is expected to address the crowd. His eloquence and piquant manner of discussing public questions, will attract attention for miles around. It is expected the meeting at Somerville will be the largest ever assembled in the State. The hospitality of its citizens is proverbial, and we trust they may not be disappointed in the number of friends who may respond to their promise of welcome. We are also happy to announce that General BLAIR will address the people of Shelby county, on the night of the 31st.

The New Orleans Bee, of Monday last, publishes a report, on the authority of three Imperialist officers who were present at Maximilian's execution, that Escobedo inflicted twenty-five lashes on the person of the illustrious Prince with a whip or cowhide, and that the populace were permitted to dance around his mutilated and outraged body.

Captain Kirk, commanding "meelish" at Winchester, threatens to shoot a man, or men, who, he says, groaned on the Fourth of July, when the stars and stripes were lowered from the pole erected that day in front of the court house.

A young lady of Nashville, says the Union and Dispatch, was seduced by a Brownlow official a day or two since. He accomplished his wicked purpose by inducing her to accompany him in a buggy to the country.

A Miss Sallie Watts, of Montgomery, attempted to commit suicide by jumping into the Alabama river at that place, on Sunday last. She was rescued by a negro who was near by.

A SHARP CRITICISM.

Honorable A. J. Fletcher at Memphis.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: If there is one character more loathsome and contemptible than another, it is the case of an educated and intelligent man trifling with the dearest interests of the country, insulting the intelligent and deluding the ignorant and credulous for the sake of personal advantage through party triumph. Such was the spectacle exhibited by the so-called Secretary of State in his speech in this city. Mr. Fletcher said the Constitution of the State "could not be altered but by two Legislatures assenting and a popular vote." How then, pray, is he the Secretary of State; Brownlow, Governor; and how and by what authority do their so-called Judges assume jurisdiction over the lives and property of the citizens? Simply the authority of a set of self authorised men, who met together voluntarily in the city of Nashville and constituted themselves a convention of the State of Tennessee, and assumed authority to strip the people of the State of several hundred millions of property, delegated to another similar body the power to disfranchise the whole people, and the appointment by Brownlow of Judges to construe their acts and enforce their assumptions as authority. Where is Mr. Fletcher's authority to act as Secretary of State? Any hundred, or even fifty men, in Memphis, have as much right as Fletcher's convention to meet in Odd Fellow's Hall and do the same thing. And this Mr. Fletcher knows, but he also knew that his ignorant black hearers did not know these things, and could not understand them if told of it. What cared he for the intelligent and honest portion of his hearers? About as much as the cold blooded, devilish Indian cares for his victim whom, with the aid of his hellish tools, he is snaring for sacrifice.

Fortieth Congress—Extra Session.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 16.

Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to amend the charter of Washington City so as to allow colored men to hold office.

Mr. Buckalew objected and the bill was laid over.

A bill was passed declaring that no soldier or sailor deserted who went home after April 19th without proper authority, having served faithfully up to that day; provided that anything herein contained shall not operate as remission of any bounty, back pay or pension, lost by such desertion.

The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the President, transmitting a copy of the treaty with Russia, and calling the attention of Congress to the necessity of appropriating $7,200,000 to carry the same into effect. The message was referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. Edwards offered a resolution that one member of the Senate and two of the House be added to the Committee on Retrenchment. Resolution passed.

On motion of Mr. Anthony, 2,000 copies of Chief Justice Chase's recent decision at Raleigh, N. C., were ordered to be printed for United States Senate Executive Committee.

Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.

The bill introduced by Mr. Stevens was ordered to be printed, and was referred to the Reconstruction Committee, to enable the inhabitants of the rebel States to form State governments. It declares all governments and pretended government in the Southern territories to be null and of no effect, save that which they may derive from action of Congress.

The existing corporations and officers for local purposes to be continued until Congress or those authorized by Congress, shall determine their existence with proper conditions.

Until admitted into the Union, each district, as now existing, shall be governed by three commissioned civilians, chosen by the joint action of Congress.

The present registration to be continued, with a view to the formation of State Constitutions, which must be submitted to Congress for approval. The bill declares the admission of the new States to be the sole duty and work of Congress, and neither the President nor any head of departments, or the Judiciary to interfere. The opinion of the Attorney General on any point connected with the States reconstruction is unauthorized, and ought not to be obtruded upon the Government.

Nothing will be done in the House in the several contested election cases until next session.

Owing to the departure for home of many members, the House has scarcely a quorum.

The Buntyn

HOMESTEAD LANDS

FOR SALE.

WE have the pleasure of placing on the market these very desirable and valuable lands, so well known to the community as the Homestead Tract of the late Geraldus Buntyn, Esq., situated at the first station on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, five miles east of the city. The improvements, with about twenty acres of land, have been recently sold to Home F. Hill, Esq., who now resides upon the premises. The balance of the tract, consisting of about 150 acres, has been laid off in lots varying in size from five to ten acres, fronting upon broad avenues, and laid off so as to secure the greatest amount of comfort. The trains of the Memphis and Charleston railroad afford the opportunity of going in and out of the city, from and to Buntyn's Station, four times a day, so as to make a residence at this point almost as convenient as to live in the city itself.

The choice can now be had of lots wholly or part in original forest, or in field,

IN EXCHANGE FOR CITY PROPERTY.

The executors are directed by the will to sell this place and invest in city property, and we will receive propositions to exchange for either improved or vacant lots in the city.

To all parties looking for a suburban residence, we do not think any property more desirable can be found, in regard to health, convenience or good neighborhood, within the same distance from the city.

The terms will be made very liberal and easy, and the prices low to parties desirous of buying for occupation.

Plans of the subdivision will be shown at our office.

TO BE HELD

AT HERNANDO, MISS, AUGUST, 1867

THE FIRST DRAWING, which took place at Hernando, Miss., on the 15th instant, was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. Several thousand dollars worth of tickets having been sold, a large amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner:

HERNANDO, MISS., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify, that the above report of the first drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct, and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justness unsurpassed by any drawing of which we have any knowledge. The managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.

(Signed) J. B. MORGAN,
W. W. CAMPTON,
ROBERT TEMPLE,

Mr. John T. Foster, an eminent and worthy citizen of Virginia, died in this city yesterday, after a short but painful attack of congestion. He had been on a business trip to Mississippi and was returning home to his family and a large circle of friends, when the fell destroyer overtook him on the way. Mr. Foster was well and most favorably known to many merchants of this city, having had large business transactions with several of our best houses. His remains will be appropriately and decently interred by his friends at Winchester to-day. Virginia papers please copy. Members are expected to attend his burial from the Worsham House at 3 o'clock this evening. Our sincere condolence is offered to his grief-stricken family.

No one can read it without a genuine hearty laugh, and everybody should get the book.

GRAND RALLY IN THE FIRST WARD.

Great Enthusiasm—Large Crowd—Eloquent Speeches.

The First Ward Etheridge Club had a grand rally last night. The crowd was large enough to make two or three Radical mass meetings, and nothing could have been more spirited, enthusiastic and inspiring than the whole affair. If every ward in the city had such a live, wide awake club, Radicalism would not come out of its dark lantern cousin on election day.

Speeches were made by Messrs. Cameron, Clusky of the AVALANCHE, Van Anderson and Walker.

Mr. Cameron was sharp, eloquent, logical. Mr. Clusky was listened to with deep attention. The speech of Mr. Van Anderson was eloquent, and was loudly applauded. Mr. Walker, as a kind of mentor, gave excellent advice, and showed not merely knowledge of human nature, but great practical sense. The whole meeting passed off finely.

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS.

A Chance to Spend a Day in Cool, Shady Groves.

The Memphis and Ohio railroad has been strongly urged to afford to the denizens of this heated city a chance to breathe the cool air of country wild woods, and drink the health giving waters of Raleigh Springs. The railroad has consented. The cars are to run out and return twice on every Sunday. Hundreds will avail themselves of the chance. The cars will leave Memphis at eight a.m. and three p.m., and returning will leave Wells station at one p.m. and seven p.m.

ITEMITAS.

John Shaw is charged with stealing a kit of mackerel from the store of Wolcott & Co.

Sam Pierce is charged with stealing a horse that belonged to Mike Hamilton.

Ned Goodlet is charged with stealing a bunch of bananas from the steamer Great Republic.

Nat Cook is charged with embezzlement from the store of Mr. Hinson.

Jim Conly was arrested for stealing a watch and revolver from Matt Allen.

A workman on the wrecking boat General Totten was thrown overboard by a rope, but fortunately was rescued.

A cotton bloom that opened on the place of Ab. M. Harwell, near the State Female Academy, was sent to us several days ago.

William Cornell is arrested for snatching a carpet sack, and beating its owner, a Mr. Black, with a slung shot.

A little son of Mr. Spratt, on Wellington street, was run over yesterday by a wood wagon, and was, it is feared, fatally injured.

It is reported, but on what authority we know not, that there is soon to be an election for Justices of the Peace.

A fellow named Henry is under arrest for attempting to break into the store of Mr. Hutchins, on Main street. He had cut a pane of glass out of the window.

The street railroad company seemed yesterday to be running freight cars over their track between the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad and the Memphis and Ohio railroad.

Et, Sproull is under arrest on suspicion of being concerned in a robbery that was committed some weeks ago in a Main street store. Sproull hails from Louisville. Nearly all the bad fellows found here come from somewhere else.

A man named Ned Parker was badly beaten by four negroes who attempted to rob him, when going through Brinkley avenue to market. The approach of a white man put the ruffians to flight.

Asa Hill, Esq., the courteous and indefatigable agent of the Memphis and Ohio railroad, at the office corner of Main and Jefferson streets, has gone on a brief visit to Little Rock.

A well known and highly esteemed youth named John Cass, who was a member of Stonewall Jackson base ball club, died recently from disease brought on by eating green apples. His funeral took place yesterday and was attended by the club, which deeply regret his death.

The colored Ohio orator, Langston, is said to have made recently a great speech in opposition to the Maynard doctrine, that neither whites nor blacks have naturally any political rights—that all such rights arise from the gift of the Government.

It is said that during his recent visit, Secretary Fischer asked a Radical merchant, what he thought of the County Commissioners. "Well," was the reply, "three are honest men, who don't know much, and two are confounded rascals, who don't know any more than the others."

On Monday a desperate fight came off in a Main street jewelry store, but was so quiet withal that, although both the combatants at the close were covered with blood, not half a dozen passers by noticed the fracas. They were both handy with their "manleys," but Higgins had the best of it.

A swimming match came off yesterday between Mike Hogan and Sam Donovan, for fifty dollars a side. They swam from Wolf river to opposite Overall's landing, when Donovan gave out and had to be taken into a skiff. Hogan, the victor, was pretty good on the swim after Donovan gave out.

When a woman of indifferent character died, she willed that her personal property, which was in a room of which the police had the key, should go to pay the doctor, but unfortunately before the police would give up the key, somebody entered the room and stole everything.

Some person has offered to make a complete map of the city, showing every lot and subdivision, and only asking ten per cent. of the taxes to be assessed on lots that would otherwise escape taxation. The County Commissioners fear that this ten per cent. might amount to five or six thousand dollars, and won't consent to take the map on the terms proposed.

A gentlemen of veracity states that a short time since a Miss Noble died in one of our public institutions. She had a good deal of valuable personal property at different places in the city, but the police got hold of it, and never turned over a dollar of it to any body else.

The County Hospital is in one respect admirably managed at present. The buildings are poor and it is difficult to keep them clean, but the attire neat of the institution, including salaries, attendance, food, medicines, clothing and everything else, is only about seventy cents a day for each sick person or pauper.

The city feeds the horses and owns the ambulance in which the horses used by the sanitary squad. When the ambulance takes a sick man to the County Hospital the county has to pay $2; but the $2 don't go into the city treasury, but into that of the Sanitary Fund, from whence it is never again known to come forth.

A negro named Mitchell had a quarrel on Monday with another colored person who hangs round Rotten Row. They went on the bluff to have it out in a fist fight. Suddenly Mitchell drew a razor and made a stroke at his antagonist, who took to his heels, stopped, picked up a brick and came back. Again Mitchell cut at him with the razor, and this second time he inflicted an ugly gash across the shoulder and breast. Mitchell then ran away and the wounded man was cared for.

Some sneak thief entered the room of Locke Brothers yesterday morning, and stole a watch and clothing worth $250. The room entered is on the third floor of the building occupied by Flaherty's furniture warehouse, and the entrance to the building must have been effected by a false key, and into the room by getting through the transom. Some surprise was expressed at the thief getting away safely with the booty, as the place is in the immediate neighborhood of a favorite loafing place of Beaumont's police.

TO LEASE OR SELL REAL ESTATE.—William Brown to Hiram A. Parter, deed, $3,500, lot of ground on Fort Pickering or Chickasaw City, west side of Main street extended, south of Mississippi and Tennessee railroad depot; block 37, sometimes called 36, 56 feet front on Main street, north of Alabama street, by 127½.

Jeremiah Jamison to John P. Jamison, deed, consideration, love and affection; the southeast quarter of section 15, township 1, range 7 west, in Chickasaw survey, 160 acres.

James W. Allen to Walter C. Allen, deed, $1,500, certain lots, tracts or parcels of land, 9th civil district, lately owned by Walter C. Allen, sr.; a quarter part of the same conveyed above.

William R. Hunt et al., President and Directors of Gayoso Manufacturing Company, quit claim, $20,000, lots Nos. 191 and 192 in Greenlaw's addition to the city of Memphis; being part of county lot No. 523.

James Burmingham to Matthew Davis, quit claim, lot No. 49 in Woodruff's subdivision of original lots Nos. 318 and 319, situate on Railroad Avenue, near North Winchester avenue.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We understand that a Mr. Blanchett was accidentally run over by the freight cars on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, at Henry station, about ten o'clock yesterday morning. Both his legs were cut off between the thigh and knee. He was drunk, and was lying with his legs across the track. The engineer thought it was a log, and was at the time going down grade. When the mistake was discovered it was too late to check the train. Blanchett died in about three hours.

Receipts of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad for Wednesday, July 17.

V Malsi, 10 cars clay; Morgan & Jones, 1 car lumber; Cubbins & Gunn, 1 car lumber; Taylor, Gay & Rutland, 1 bale cotton; West, Taylor & Co, 2 bags wool; F Titus, 1 barrel meal; Brooks, Neely & Co, 1 sack meal.

CALVARY CHURCH AND THE STREET PAVING.—The question has been much mooted as to the liabilities of the churches of the city to pay for the street paving in front of their respective lots. In the case of Calvary Church the matter has been submitted to professional gentlemen, and we hear that Messrs. Swan & Foute have given an unqualified opinion that the churches on Second, Adams and Madison streets are not liable to the contributions demanded by the city authorities. The opinion, we hear, goes so far, as to declare that because of certain irregularities in the proceedings of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, none of the property holders on these three streets can be made to pay the amounts exacted. We understand, however, that the opinion, as we are pleased to hear, in no manner interferes with the right of the contractors to proceed with the work and demand payment from the city at large.

LOOK OUT FOR SPURIOUS VOTES.

Minors and Non-Residents Flocking In.

We have been shown letters, and received them ourselves, exposing the fact that a large number of colored persons are coming to or are now in the city, supported by the Freedmen's Bureau, who are non-residents of the State, and have come or are coming here for the purpose of voting. They have procured their certificates here, or even if they have not, it is understood that no difficulty will be interposed to prevent them from procuring the necessary certificates, even on the morning of the election. The names of many of these negroes are given, and the polls will be sedulously watched to prevent the introduction of all such spurious votes. Any person who may so cast a vote, without being entitled to the suffrage, is liable to arrest and punishment. One letter now before us mentions the names of three from one plantation now in the city, and says two more are to follow, whose object is to vote. Will our friends in North Mississippi and Arkansas advise us of all such purposed attempts at fraud, that they may be counteracted as far as possible? Let them send us the names of those who leave the plantations with such object. It is well known that all sorts of frauds will be attempted, and that youths of sixteen, seventeen and eighteen have been supplied with certificates, and are being used in stuffing the ballot boxes with their fraudulent votes. A strict vigilance will be exerted, and while every thing like violence is deprecated, every effort will be made to prevent any such imposition from being consummated.

ANOTHER DODGE TO GET MONEY

Beanmont Wants Pay From the County.

It is reported that overtures have been made to the County Commissioners by or on behalf of Beaumont, to get from the county treasury the snug little sum of five thousand dollars a month for the State Metropolitan Police, that draws from the city almost a third of all the city's revenues. This request is cool, even for Beaumont. The police don't earn anything outside of Memphis, simply because they are not here. Their whole time is devoted to Memphis. The thieves mostly confine their operations to the field of police protection. There are few thieves outside the corporation limits, and those that are so can generally be watched just as well by citizens as they would be by Beaumont's police.

Perhaps if the county should give Beaumont $5,000 a month he might put patrolmen on some of the roads. To suppose that he would put fifty around the hills and hollows of Shelby county is absurd. He hasn't a grain of sense, but he knows better than to do that. Some part of the $5,000 would have to go to the Police fund—that mysterious abyss in which the proceeds of waifs, the black mail of rogues, the tool chests of dead carpenters, the imported, served without color of law on the vile and unfortunate, all are swallowed up.

[OFFICIAL.]

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

CITY HALL, MEMPHIS, July 16, 1867.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Tuesday evening, July 16, 1867, present, Chairman Hadley; Clancy, Cochran, Amis, Wickersham, Bolling, Lynn, Horst, O'Donnell, Townsend, Shaw, Smith, Lemon and Taussig, Aldermen.

Hon. H. J. Lynn was appointed Mayor pro tem., by his Honor, Mayor Leland, who is absent on city business, which appointment was unanimously sanctioned by the Board.

A quorum being announced, the Chairman took his seat and called the Board to order. The roll of Alderman was called, the minutes read and approved, in part, for the present.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A communication from his Honor, the Mayor, City Attorney and City Controller in relation to the purchase by the city of a small lot of ground lying in front of Memphis and Charleston railroad depot, belonging to the heirs of Jacob L. Thompson, recommending the purchase, etc. Report adopted.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

We were appointed a committee to whom was referred the petition of Mrs. Robert Hosmer, Treasurer & Co., offering to sell to the city a portion of ground belonging to the heirs of Jacob L. Thompson, fifty feet front on the eastern side of Pigeon Roost road or Charleston avenue by a depth of forty-eight feet nine inches

In 1859 the city entered into a contract with the Memphis and Charleston railroad (City Records, No. 8, pp. 301 and 302) to purchase the ground on the east side of the Pigeon Roost road and the depot grounds, for public use of the railroad and the city, in consideration of the railroad purchasing the right of way for Charleston avenue and building the bridge on Madison street extended, over the track. Perhaps all of the ground has been bought but this lot, the title of which is to be held by Thompson. The city, in connection with the railroad in 1859, made itself liable to the purchase of this lot.

We would recommend that the Mayor be authorized to negotiate with Messrs. Royster & Trezevant for the purchase and transfer of this lot, and that if they are unable to agree as to price, that the city shall select an arbitrator, the parties one, and three to settle the value of the lot and report back to the Board.

HENRY J. LYNN,
Mayor pro tem.
R. J. MORGAN,
City Attorney.
W. CLARK,

To Mr. J. F. Foster, City Engineer:

I propose to build a culvert on Calhoun street, according to the plans and specifications in your office, for the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in cash, or its equivalent in city scrip. Very respectfully,

JOHN REID.

Committee report in favor of the award being made to John Reid.

Adopted. MEMPHIS, July 1, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

Your petitioner, at the request of the City Surveyor, put in a bid for milk for the month of March, and was notified to make out bill for cash. I was the lowest bidder, being thirty cents per gallon. My bill amounted to $1 46 (forty-one dollars and forty hundredth dollars.) I received for this a city warrant, which I had to sell to Mr. sa. Murphy & Cash for sixty-one cents on the dollar, through which I lost $14. (fourteen dollars.) The undersigned, therefore, very respectfully ask that this amount would be refunded to him. And he will ever pray, etc.

JAMES H. O'NEILL.

The City Controller will issue warrants to make up deficiency of Messrs. Murphy & Cash furnishing a statement of rate of purchase of the above scrip from purchasers.

Adopted. MEMPHIS, June 29, 1867.

Controller of City of Memphis:

Sir: I, as Mr. J. Morrow, or order, two hundred and seventy dollars and forty-five cents, it being the amount of my bill for bread furnished to the hospital during the months of April last.

Bakery 19 Poplar street. MEMPHIS, June 29, 1867.

To the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

The undersigned begs to state that, according to his contract with the city for the supply of bread for the hospital, he was to furnish the same at 10 cents per loaf, in cash or their treasury notes, for the above bill; that he cannot afford to take city scrip at a depreciated value, as he cannot use it to pay his own debts. He therefore prays your honorable body to authorize the Controller to issue a sufficient warrant in payment of the bill so as to make it equal to currency. And your petitioner will ever pray, etc. J. MORROW.

The City Controller will issue warrants to settle the above bill.

Adopted. MEMPHIS, July 9, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

Your petitioners would respectfully state that on the 18th of March, 1867, they sold the city Purveyor, for use of Hospital, certain goods, amounting to eighty-four dollars and ninety-five cents (84 95) at the then market prices, which the present city scrip has been tendered, but as the goods were sold at the lowest cash or currency price, according to law, they would have only been a clear loss of the discount. Your petitioners respectfully ask payment of the bill in United States currency, or such an amount of city scrip as will produce the amount of their bill. And, as in duty bound, your petitioners will ever pray, etc. Respectfully,

SHEPHERD WATKINS & CO.

The Mayor and City Controller will settle the above account.

Adopted. MEMPHIS, July 16, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

Your petitioners would represent to you that there is an error in the assessment of one lot, (No. 5,) Beale street, east of Dunlap, said lot is called in the last assessment eighty feet by two hundred and forty-five, (80 by 245,) it really is seventy-four by one hundred and seventy-five; assessing at seven thousand three hundred dollars, which, we respectfully submit, is too much by one thousand dollars. Thomas Sullivan has purchased twenty-five feet of said lot, at eighty dollars per foot in MAY last, which at the present time is just fifty-three dollars per foot difference. We would also state that, at the time of the assessment, there was nothing but a small frame building on the lot, and that, since, ask your Honorable Body to correct said error. We also send the papers in the case, together with the former one for your inspection, trusting that your Honorable body will do us justice. Respectfully,

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

The undersigned, your petitioners, would respectfully represent that the Memphis and Ohio railroad, against the Fire Department and hospitals, from October 1, 1866, to May 1, 1867, amounting in all to $85. The taxes of our company were $1,200. Many of our repairs on fire engines or articles for them. Our repairs were rendered by request, and we expected to be paid. If your petitioners will consent, but now calling for a settlement of the above city scrip. To convert it into cash we have been compelled to take city scrip. To convert it into cash we have been compelled to take city scrip at one dollar (the highest rate we were offered for it,) merely causing us to lose fifty cents on it, and the interest on the same for a long time, thereby losing a small profit, and rising discounting the scrip it has entailed a heavy loss. We, therefore, respectfully ask your honorable body for relief, and pray upon your sense of justice to insure our just claim for the above, or allow us to take our losses by having the scrip discounted. For which we will ever pray.

Respectfully,

O. F. PRESCOTT & CO.

The City Controller will issue warrants to make up the indebtedness to the petitioners furnishing a certificate from the purchasers of the scrip.

Adopted.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

Your petitioners would respectfully represent that they have rendered to the Hospital Physician, Dr. Shields, for medical services rendered to the pauper patients from the county, outside of the corporation limits, the sum of $1,000.

They are informed that it is objected to the payment of these claims on the part of the county authorities, that the Hospital is under the control of the Board of Supervisors of the county, and your petitioners may rightfully claim of the Board of Supervisors, as a matter of right, the amount of said claim. We have not nor do not claim of or look to the city for any compensation for services rendered, but only the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in cash, or its equivalent in city scrip.

Very respectfully,

JOHN REID.

Your petitioner, Mary Moriarty, would respectfully represent that, as administratrix, with the will annexed, of D. Moriarty, deceased, she has taken charge and management of the property of said D. Moriarty; that the house No. 16, on Adams street, belongs to said estate; that the basement story of said house has heretofore been rented as a saloon; that the entrance to the same was by a side entrance from the alley; that in pursuance of an ordinance of the city, and orders from the city authorities, petitioner had the said entrance closed up, and in consequence of having to do so, she lost the tenant, having to have the place closed up while she was having an entrance opened from the front, by reason of which she has been deprived of the rents for several months, the same having been rented at fifty dollars per month, whereby, by the action of the city authorities, she has lost already $200 in rents, besides the additional expense of said, paid for closing up the side entrance and opening a new entrance through the front of the store above.

As by the action of the city authorities she has been subjected to said loss, and additional expense of twenty-five dollars, she asks that the city tax on said property be abated and modified to the extent of her injury above stated, and that the City Tax Collector be directed to allow her a credit on her city taxes to that extent; and petitioner will ever pray.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The following was transmitted to-day to the Senate:

I transmit herewith reports from the Secretary of War and Attorney General, containing the information called for by a resolution of the Senate of the 3d inst., requesting the President to communicate to the Senate copies of all orders, instructions, circular letters, or letters of advice issued to the respective military officers assigned to command the several military districts, under an act passed March 2, 1867; and also copies of all opinions given by the Attorney General, touching reconstruction, and interpretation of said acts, and all correspondence relating to the operations, construction and execution of said acts, and such as may have taken place between himself and any commander, or between the latter or commander touching said subject; also copies of orders issued by the commander carrying out the provisions of said act; also the number of persons registered. In reply to the same I inform the Senate what progress had been made in the matter of registration under said acts and whether the sum of money appropriated for carrying them out would probably be sufficient. In answer to that portion of the resolution as to whether the sum of money appropriated for carrying these acts into effect would probably be sufficient, reference was made to the accompanying report of the Secretary of War. It will be seen from that report that an appropriation of $5,000,000 was made in an act approved March 30, 1867, for the purpose of carrying these acts into effect, and provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and the supplementary act passed March 23, 1867, has already been expended by the commanders of the military districts, and, in addition, the sum of $1,467,277 is required for present purposes. It is exceedingly difficult, at the present time, to estimate the probable expense of carrying into full extent the two acts of March last and the bill which passed the two Houses on the 13th instant. If the existing governments of the ten States out of the Union are to be deposed, and the entire machinery be placed under the exclusive control and authority of the respective district commanders, all the expenditures incident to the administration of such governments must necessarily be incurred by the Federal Government. He believed in addition to the $2,100,000 already expended, an estimate for the year which will be required will not be less than $14,000,000 over the aggregate amount expended prior to the rebellion, for the administration of their respective governments by the ten States embraced in the provision of those acts. The sum expended no doubt will be considerably augmented if the machinery of these States be operated by the Federal Government, and will still be largely increased if the United States, by abolishing the existing State Governments, should be responsible for liabilities incurred by them before the rebellion in laudable efforts to develop their resources, and in no wise created for insurrectionary purposes. The debt of these States thus legitimately incurred, when accurately ascertained, will, it is believed, approximate $100,000,000, and they are held not only by our citizens, among whom are residents of portions of the country which have ever been loyal to the Union, but by persons who are the subjects of foreign governments. It is worthy of the consideration of Congress and the country whether, if the Federal Government by its action were to assume such obligation, so large an addition to our public expenditure would not seriously impair the credit of the nation; or, on the other hand, whether the refusal of Congress to guarantee the payment of these States, after having displaced or abolished their State governments, would not be viewed as a violation of good faith, and a repudiation by the national legislature of liabilities which these States had justly and legally incurred.

SAD FAMILY HISTORY.

A Wife Seduced by her Husband's Brother.

From the Chicago Tribune.]

A very remarkable chapter of private family troubles was brought to light at the Police Court on Saturday morning, where Mrs. Mary Laurits and Lawrence Laurits were charged with adultery.

About four weeks ago Mrs. Laurits, wife of John Laurits, a wholesale and retail dealer in groceries, on Seventeenth street, in New York, started on a visit to New Orleans. Her husband, who is a wealthy gentleman, had always surrounded her with every comfort, and her life had hardly known a single hardship. She had her choice between a visit to Germany and one to the Crescent City. She chose the latter and prepared an extensive wardrobe for a protracted visit. Besides her clothing, worth about $1,800, her husband supplied her with $4,000 in money, and she left, as he supposed, for New Orleans. He was not a little amazed and humiliated to receive information, a few days ago, from a correspondent in this city to the effect that his wife had been here three weeks, and was living with his brother, Lawrence, as the wife of the latter. Upon the receipt of this intelligence Mr. Lawrence immediately started for Chicago. Of the several members of the Laurits family all resided in New York, and had prospered in business, except Lawrence, who had been alienated from them for years, and pursued such a life that they were glad of his absence. His brother John had not seen him for several years, his last recollection being of a painful character, for it was known to him a long time since that Lawrence had persistently attempted to poison his domestic happiness by a clandestine correspondence with his wife, in which he tried to prevail upon her to leave home and join him in a distant part of the country.

The affair was now brought to a sad culmination, and the wife who had received nothing but kindness from him for more than twenty years had at last forgotten her marriage vows, fled from her house, and compromised her good name.

Upon arriving in this city, on Friday afternoon, John ascertained that his brother Lawrence was keeping a low saloon a few doors from the bridge on West Randolph street, and that Mrs. Laurits was, at least, living at the same house with him. Securing the services of a policeman, Mr. Laurits visited the place about dark. The officer stood outside while the other went inside. The first person he met was his brother. They recognized each other at once, and Lawrence immediately drew a revolver and ordered him to leave. The officer, hearing these words, immediately advanced, and told the desperate man to put up his weapon. Their business was stated, and Lawrence denied that the other's wife was there, but when informed that it was their intention to search the premises, he admitted the fact and conducted them to her presence. Their first meeting was a strange one. The guilty wife was overpowered with humiliation and shame. During her brief stay with her paramour her life had already been a hard one. She had been required to perform unaccustomed labor, an her health had been impaired. She was already in great mental suffering from the course she had undertaken, and the unlooked for appearance of her husband was only needed to completely break down her feelings. She was so much changed that he scarcely recognized her at first, and he impulsively exclaimed: "Is this my wife?" The tone was affectionate, and the face of the woman was for a moment expressive of an unexpected pleasure, but when she remembered the past she was again overwhelmed with sadness, and could not speak. Lawrence Laurits and the wife were arrested and taken to the Union street police station, whence they were brought before the Police Court.

The appearance of the two brothers was in marked contrast. John was a tall, well-formed, fine looking man, with a frank and honest countenance, while the other was short in stature, and with coarse and repulsive features. It appears that $1,500 of the money which Mrs. Laurits brought had been invested in the saloon business, but the rest had been preserved. There was no evidence to convict them of adultery, and as her husband was willing to receive her to his home again, and she glad enough to go, the case was dismissed. Leaving the court room the parties stopped in the hall, Mrs. Laurits being very desirous that the money returned to her by the police should be counted over by the husband. While the latter was counting it his brother struck him a cowardly blow upon the head. At the same moment another miscreant named Bender, who was a bar tender for Lawrence Laurits, threatened that he would take the life of John Laurits before he left the city. The two belligerents were arrested and taken inside, where each was fined $100 and required to give bail of $500 to keep the peace.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, July 17, 1867.

What can be said of business yesterday, that has not been said over and over again for several weeks? The oldest inhabitant—or at least who has been familiar with our trade for thirty years—says (with a sigh) he never saw any thing like it. There was some movement in cotton, although the stringency in the money market confined operations to small lots, and by no means at enhanced prices. The stock is gradually being reduced, and the larger proportion on hand is of the lower grades. Middling is held at 23 to 24c; low middling, 20 to 22c; ordinary, from 15 to 19c. By the commencement of the next season, the market will be almost entirely cleaned out. Possibly there may be remaining one or two thousand bales of the lower grades:

Inferior	13 @16
Ordinary	17 @20
Good ordinary	19 @20
Low middling	21 @22
Middling	23 @24
Strict middling	24½@25
Good middling	26 @28

CINCINNATI PROVISION MARKET.

CINCINNATI, July 12.

There has been a continued gradual advance in all articles of the hog product during the week, including lard, which has been dull for a long time past. The advance in bulk and bacon meats has been about 1¼c per pound during the last three weeks; but for three months previous to that time prices remained in about the same notch, thus the prices of to-day are, considering shrinkage and expense of carrying, scarcely higher than then. In a word, it would have been about as well to have sold anytime months past at the then current prices as to accept the prices of to-day. This applies in all cases except hams, which have advanced in the last month from 4 to 5c per pound, owing to the high price of beef and a general impression that the supply would prove inadequate to the want of consumers. The general feeling now is that the trade is in a healthy condition, and the market closes unsettled and strong at my quotations; holders generally asking higher prices. As a matter of comparison, I give the prices of the various articles in this market this date last year: Gold, 150; mess pork, $32 50; lard, 20c; bulk shoulders, sides and clear sides, 17½@19½c; boxed bacon shoulders, 17c; sides, 19½c; clear rib sides, 20¾c; clear, 21½c; sugar cured hams, 24@25c. Mess pork has materially improved in price during the week, closing firm at $25 for city; there is but little country offering. Lard was more inquired for early in the week at 11¾c, without finding sellers, then 11¾c was offered, but 12c demanded, with small sales at this price to-day, but at the close holders generally are not disposed to sell at this figure; keg, 13@13¼c; no lower grades or grease in market. Bulk meats advanced ¾c per pound during the week, closing with buyers at 12c for shoulders, sides clear ribbed and clear sides, but at the close are held ¼ to ½c higher. Hams are held out of market. Bacon is in good consumptive demand at 10¾, 12¾ and 13½c, packed, for shoulders, sides clear rib and clear sides, but sellers refuse to accept these figures at the close and now contend for ¼c more. Plain hams have advanced to 17 and 18c and sugar cured to 20c, cured to order, with moderate demand. The sales during the week have been large, partly speculative. Beef hams, 20½ to 21c for summer cure. Plate beef scarce and firm at $25@24. Whisky quiet at 90c in bond.

GENERAL MARKET.

[NOTE.—Our quotations are the wholesale prices unless otherwise stated. In filling small orders to the city or country trade an advance of three to five per cent. is obtained.]

CORN—The market yesterday was dull, with a small demand and a slight decline in prices; prime white ruled at $1 15@1 18; yellow, $1 07@1 10; inferior at $1@1 05.

FLOUR—In fair demand, with a large stock on hand. Prices were fair, with a slight advance in fancy brands; fine, $7@7 50; X, $11 25@11 50; XX, $12 50@13 50; XXX, $14@14 75; fancy brands, $16@17 50.

CORNMEAL—Was in fair demand with prices firm; kiln dried, $5 25@5 35 per bbl.

OATS—In fair demand with a light supply, and firm at 85@90c.

PROVISIONS—The market was firm with a fair stock on hand; prices were firm and tending upwards. Mess pork firm at $24 50@25 per bbl.; prime, $21 50@22. Bacon firm, with an advance of ¼c; clear sides, 14¾@15c; clear ribbed sides, 12½@13c; shoulders, 10½@11c; plain canvassed hams, 17@18c; sugar cured canvassed hams, 19@21c; breakfast bacon, 17@18c.

LARD—Firm and steady; keg leaf 14c@14½; tierce, 13@13½c.

ASTROLOGY.

At the wonderful revelations made by the Great Astrologist

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

SHE reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doubtful minds, fascination, frowns in love, and disappointments, have become despondent. She brings together those long separated; gives information concerning absent friends or lovers; restores lost or stolen property; tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful; causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers reveals the dark and mysterious mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the planetary stars that overcome or predominate at the moment of birth, also the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Call and be convinced that she is the most wonderful person on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have an opportunity. Consultation, fee, with instructions and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with entire safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out in her own hand, will be returned (sealed and closed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained. Call at or address the Madame at her residence, No. 6 Adelaide street, between Main and Second streets, Memphis, Tenn. Please state the month and year in which you were born, inclose a lock of hair, and state sex.
